CHAPTER 4

| 4 |
|----------------|
| Find |
| word |
| ords or p |
| phrases in Cha |
| ₽. |
| Chap |
| ter 4 |
| which |
| mean |
| the |
| same a |
| as |

| 9 | |
|-----------|---|
| (page 24) | 5. to annoy or irritate someone |
| (page 22) | 5. put your arms around and held another person |
| (page 22) | 4. the side of a river |
| (page 22) | 3. with little hope of success |
| (page 20) | 2. allowing yourself to be caught by the enemy |
| (page 20) | 1. a place to burn wood in |

Follow-up activities

5 Discuss.

- 1. When the German commandant saw the African Queen coming near the village, he thought it had come to surrender. Do you surrender or give up when you have a problem? On what occasions? Give examples.
- 2. Should the commandant have tried harder to stop the steamboat escaping down the river? What could he have done to capture Rose and Allnutt?
- 3. Rose and Allnutt succeeded by helping each other. How important is it to work with others when trying to solve a problem?
- 4. How do you expect Rose and Allnutt's friendship to develop?
- 6 Imagine that you are Rose or Allnutt. Write a page in your diary describing your impressions of the other person. Include details on appearance and character. (80 100 words)

7. Type of a long gun8. Without large waves

00